

After the tea ceremony, the students gathered at the teahouse on the museum grounds.

Second graders watch as the teamaster prepares the traditional Japanese tea ceremony.

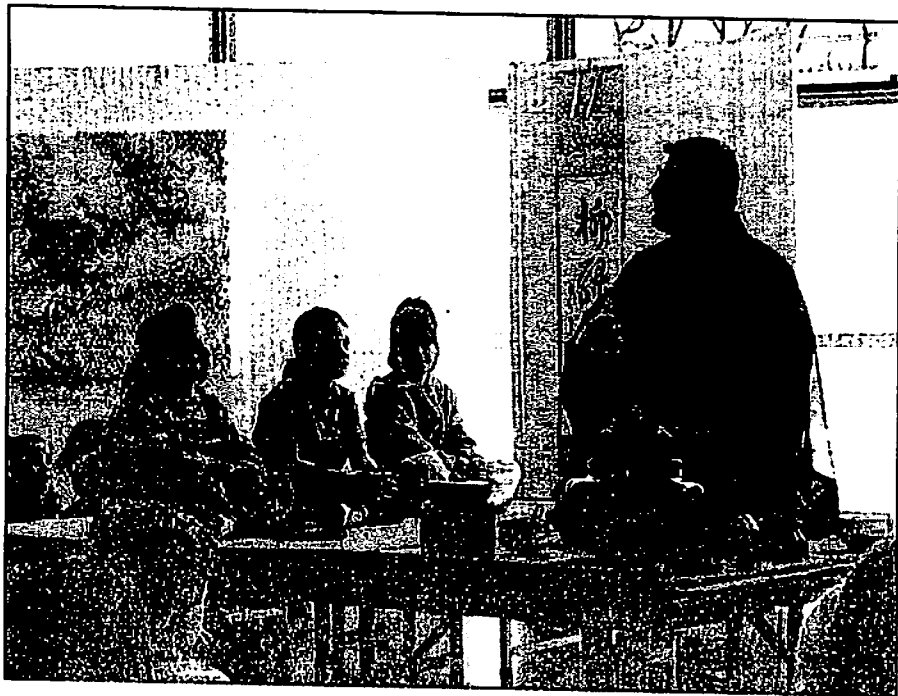

Traditional Japanese Tea Ceremony at ACM

Second grade teacher, Helen Fowler, Hidehiro Yoshii, Japanese Consul for Information and Cultural Affairs, and Ms. Yori Oda, Harvard University, observe the tea ceremony.

Teamaster Glenn Sorei prepares tea

Teamaster Glenn Pereira explains the intricacies of the tea ceremony.

Helen Fowler's class sings a Japanese song for the visiting dignitaries.

Carly Tillotson and her mom, Debbie, enjoy tasting the tea.

Charles Weyerhaeuser addresses the students and other guests at the Art Complex Tea Ceremony.

Carlie McClennan and teacher Pam Sechoka. The teamster used the tea bowl that Carlie made for his presentation.

Alexandra Brady isn't sure she likes the taste of the green tea.